City of Philadelphia: Campaign Finance The Philadelphia campaign finance law applies to candidates for City elective offices. The City's campaign finance law sets limits on political contributions to candidates, requires candidates and political committees to electronically disclose campaign finance information to the Ethics Board and gives authority to the Board to enforce and provide guidance on the law. Philadelphia 3.0 Philadelphia 3.0 is a political organization committed to helping Philadelphia capitalize on its progress and promise. We support independent-minded candidates running for City Council and lead efforts to reform and modernize City Hall. City of Philadelphia: FAQ In-Kind Contributions Directly to a Campaign: If a person makes an in-kind contribution by providing goods or services directly to a candidate's campaign, the date of acceptance of that contribution is the date that the candidate's campaign receives the goods or services.
